- Questions?
- Thank you for your attention

In response to a question from the Chair, the Deputy Fire Chief-Operations provided context for the image on the final slide of his presentation. He noted that whenever there is a fire in the Province, specialized units are deployed in order to protect structures from damage.

In response to a question from the Chair, the Deputy Fire Chief-Operations responded that some of the most common fire risks include the storage of fuels, dry shrubbery or firewood, debris in gutters, and fencing or vegetation placed against combustible structures.

Discussion ensued relative to the following:

- The success of local wildfire risk assessments completed by the Fire Department on residential properties sited in fire interface zones
- The propensity for certain types of vegetation to introduce fire-related hazards
- The City's work with developers in utilizing non-combustible building materials
- The salience of effective community planning as it relates to safeguarding the community from fires
- Concern regarding the potential on-site stockpiling of combustible construction materials in fire interface zones should an area's fire risk be deemed 'high' by the Fire Department
- Relative to building and permitting, whether developers were required to consider additional fire prevention measures on construction sites in fire interface zones during times of high fire risk

In response to questions from Committee members, the Deputy Fire Chief-Operations noted that he was not aware of any additional construction-related fire prevention requirements based upon an area's given fire risk. He undertook to follow-up with Fire Prevention staff to determine whether the questions had been raised previously.

5. RCMP Strategic Plan Presentation

The Manager Police Services provided the Committee with an on-screen presentation and utilized slides titled as follows:

- 2022 – 2026 RCMP Strategic Plan Stakeholder Consultation
- Planning Process
- Today's Process
- Question 1: From a safety/policing perspective, what is the #1 issue the RCMP needs to address in your community?
- Question 2: What does the RCMP do well in your community?
- Question 3: What could the RCMP be doing better in your community?
- Want to share more?

Discussion ensued relative to the following:

- The proliferation of unhoused residents and substance addiction in the Lower Mainland
- Support for proactive measures in addressing community safety concerns
- The impact of gang-related activities in the Lower Mainland
- Concern for potential youth access to dangerous substances
- Appreciation for officer presence, particularly at public events

2022 Work Plan

Community Safety Advisory Committee

Committee Mandate:

To advise Council on strategic and policy related community safety measures in alignment with the City’s Strategic Plan. The following include, but are not limited to, matters that COSAC will consider throughout the term:

- A multi-lensed approach to discussion topics related to public safety;
- Quality of life for residents related to the feeling of safety;
- Assisting staff to monitor and identify social trends and issues in the City that may impact community safety;
- Addressing the related measures set out in the City’s Strategic Plan related to safe and complete neighbourhoods.

To help support public safety goals within the City’s Strategic Plan, the Committee will assist by:

- a) Supporting the City’s community public safety programs and initiatives through the collaborative efforts of multiple City services (e.g. Bylaw Enforcement, Fire, Police and other City resources);
- b) Considering the Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) approach with respect to the variety of physical spaces enjoyed in the City of Coquitlam;
- c) Building community capacity by addressing ways of ensuring that individuals and neighbourhoods are prepared for emergencies;
- d) Considering and making recommendations to Council on matters identified in the Committee’s work plan;
- e) Considering comprehensive approaches in response to persistent societal challenges that could impact public safety within the City; and
- f) Advocating, supporting and monitoring programs within the City that contribute to enhancing community safety and well-being.
