

City of Coquitlam CANADA DAY

PRESENTING PARTNER MARCON

Saturday, July 1 | 12 – 10:30 p.m.
Town Centre Park (1299 Pinetree Way)

Join us for our free annual Canada Day event, offering opportunities to eat, engage and be entertained, while also learning more about the many community groups and cultures in Coquitlam.

Coquitlam recognizes that Canada Day can mean different things for different members of our community. As a result, we have adapted the July 1 event to provide a day that is sensitive to the diverse range of community perspectives. Canada Day in Coquitlam is a safe, accessible and inclusive family-friendly event with a wide range of entertainment, multicultural performances, fireworks, food, fun activities and opportunities to learn more about Canadian and pre-colonial Indigenous history.

Tips for a Fun Time

- Arrive early
- Bring a chair
- Dress for the weather
- Pack a water bottle

Since parking will be limited, consider:

-  Our free bike valet to secure your bike at the event site.
- T Taking the SkyTrain to Lafarge Lake-Douglas Station or take a bus to one of the many stops around Town Centre Park.

For a full list of event details, schedules and maps, visit coquitlam.ca/CanadaDay.

Special Thanks to our Canada Day Corporate Partners

coastcapital

TRANS LINK

Event Survey Sponsor:

2023 Summer concert series

Enjoy three free musical performances this summer as Coquitlam's much-loved Summer Concert Series returns to Town Centre Park. With two full 45-minute sets, audiences will get to hear more songs from each night's band than ever before.

- July 14 – Funk Night: Queer as Funk
- Aug. 4 – Roots / Country Night: The Promised
- Sept. 1 – R&B Night: Kystle Dos Santos

Pack a picnic, pick up a bite to eat along the way or try out an on-site food truck.

For details, visit coquitlam.ca/SummerConcerts.

Coquitlam's Eighth Annual

KALEIDOSCOPE ARTS FESTIVAL

Celebrate arts and culture in Coquitlam as two local B.C. indie rock bands – The Zolas and Current Swell – kick off Coquitlam's Kaleidoscope Arts Festival with a free outdoor concert.

Friday, Aug. 18 | 6 to 9:30 p.m.
at Town Centre Park

Bring your own chairs or blanket and watch The Zolas – a JUNO-nominated indie rock band from Vancouver, and Current Swell – a world-renowned indie rock band from Victoria, perform on the Town Centre Park Community Plaza Stage.

Saturday, Aug. 19 | 12 to 4 p.m.
at Blue Mountain Park

Get creative with hands-on arts activities, watch music and cultural dance performances, participate in cultural workshops and sample food vendor fare.

Watch for more details on our social channels and at coquitlam.ca/kaleidoscope.

Make a Splash at our Outdoor Pools and Spray Pads this Summer

Throughout the summer, Coquitlam's 10 spray parks and wading pool offer free drop-in fun for families with young children. Spray parks are open daily from 9 or 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. until Sept. 4. Blue Mountain Wading Pool is open from 11:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. until Sept. 4.

For those who prefer to swim outdoors, Eagle Ridge Outdoor Pool is the perfect option – and drop in is only $2 for all ages! View the summer hours of operation at coquitlam.ca/OutdoorPools.

Don't forget to grab a $25 Summer Child & Youth Pass for drop-in fun all summer long! Details at coquitlam.ca/SummerPass.

Getting to City Events

Due to high community interest, parking is usually limited at City events. We encourage you to walk, bike, carpool or take transit.

